Pittsburg Community Theatre Participation Agreement

Acknowledgement of Risk and Waiver of Liability

I hereby agree to hold Pittsburg Community Theatre (PCT) harmless from, and waive on behalf of myself, my heirs, and any personal representatives any and all causes of action, claims, demands, damages, costs, expenses and compensation for damage or loss to myself and/or property that may be caused by any act, or failure to act of the event, or that may otherwise arise in any way in connection with any interactions received from participation in PCT events and activities. I understand that this release discharges PCT from any liability or claim that I, my heirs, or any personal representatives may have against PCT with respect to any bodily injury, illness, death, medical treatment, or property damage that may arise from, or in connection with PCT events and activities. This liability waiver and release extends to the PCT, together with all owners, partners, and employees. By signing below, I express my understanding and intent to accept this Release and Waiver of Liability willingly and voluntarily.

COVID-19 Release & Waiver of Liability

I hereby acknowledge:

- The contagious nature of the Coronavirus/COVID-19 and that the CDC and other public health authorities recommend vaccination and social distancing. Masks are not mandated at this time but subject to change if circumstances change.
- I further acknowledge that the PCT Production Team cannot guarantee that I or my minor child will not become infected with the Coronavirus/COVID-19.
- I will immediately inform the PCT production or event staff if I develop any symptoms of COVID-19 during my participation, or if I believe that I have been exposed to COVID-19.

Code of Conduct

At Pittsburg Theatre Company (PTC), we want to ensure that each person involved with our organization feels safe and supported in their effort to create live theatre for our community. Our expectation is that the standards set forth in these guidelines are upheld by each participating member. Furthermore, we wish to ensure that safe and confidential avenues exist for any participating members who want to report oppressive behavior occurring within the organization.

- Respecting Your Fellow Artist
- Recognizing Oppressive Behavior
- Sexual Harassment

Any reported incidents of harassment or assault at any PTC function will be taken seriously and dealt with swiftly. Disciplinary actions may include expulsion of the offender from any PTC activities and/or reporting the incident to the police if warranted by the laws of the land.

Zero Tolerance

Zero-tolerance and accountability environment. The Board of Directors must promote mutual respect, tolerance, and acceptance. PTC prides itself on creating and providing healthy and positive Theatre experiences free from harassment. To that end, PTC will not tolerate harassment by any vendor, Theatre participant, or volunteer. Additionally, PTC will not tolerate behavior that infringes on the safety of any Theatre Participant. PTC does not accept any actions of intimidation, harassment, or bullying through action or word, including such behaviors as cyberbullying; direct physical contact, such as hitting or shoving; verbal assaults, such as teasing or name-calling; and social isolation or manipulation. Behaviors as described above will be investigated by the Board of Directors and could result in disciplinary actions up to and including expulsion from any PTC activities including no refund of fees.

Reporting Harmful Behavior

If you witness discrimination, harassment, or any other form of oppressive behavior, know that there are supportive members within our organization with whom you can speak. If you do not feel comfortable addressing the behavior with the creative team of your production, please know that the members of our board of directors are always available as a resource. Refer to your contact sheet from the production team for complete contact information or call 925-439-PLAY (7529) and you can speak with a board member.

Workshop Tuition and Miscellaneous Fees

Workshop fees: $375 per child. Multiple children within the same family $350 per child.

Each participant receives 1 complimentary ticket per performance.

A 3.5% fee is applied when paying online using a credit card (see link below).

Payments made with Venmo or by cash/check incur no additional fees.

In addition to the workshop fee, families are to supply appropriate dance shoes (typically jazz shoes) if needed and undergarments (for modesty). These undergarments can be simply biker shorts with a tank top (color of undergarments are dictated by costume requirements). Also, families are to contribute $5-$10 for directors gifts and if you desire, a digital copy of the performance for $25.

Refund Policy

At any time, if you are unhappy with PTC, please reach out to the Producer and/or a Board Member. A full refund (less a $50 administrative fee) may be made to participants if contacted before the first day of class. After the first day of class, deposit and tuition fee is non-refundable. No refunds will be made after class 2. Please communicate withdrawals to the Director before class 3 to receive your partial refund. Any additional considerations will be made at the sole discretion of the Board of Directors.
