A NOTE FROM THE DIRECTOR

Honk! Jr. is the story of the ugly duckling: a story of love, acceptance, and forgiveness. Throughout the four weeks we've had together, we've talked about how it feels to be excluded, bullied, and sad. We've talked about how to treat people who are different from ourselves. In this story, the main character, Ugly, learns that being different isn't just ok, it's what makes him shine.

Ugly loses his way, but meets friends along his journey that teach him how things that make us different are the same things that make us special. His mother's love is strong and she never gives up on him, eventually bringing him home. The other characters in the duckyard learn that their treatment of Ugly was wrong and ask for forgiveness. It's important to notice that Ugly is different in the beginning, but still different at the end.

It has been an honor to have my directorial debut be with this wonderful cast and crew. I am so proud of everyone involved! Our first rehearsal was the morning after the devastating warehouse fire, where PTC lost everything, but we jumped right in with auditions for Honk! Jr. Thanks to friends and PTC supporters who donated props and costume pieces, we were able to do this amazing show! A very special thank you to Josie Rapolas, Flo Buchanan, Amy Mark, Desiree Capote, Ava Duran, Julie Domingo and Owen Loyd, for all of the time and effort they devoted to putting this show together!

Thank you so much for coming to our show and I hope you love it as much as I do!

~Katie Rapolas
