~ PHOENIX UPDATE ~

We want to express our deepest appreciation for the support we have received from you, our beloved theatrical community, over the past several months. After the catastrophic fire destroyed our warehouse and all of its contents, you have responded with incredible generosity, and we are eternally grateful.

As everyone who loves live theatre knows, "the show must go on." We even opened our production of "The Sunshine Boys" just four days after the fire! Now, in spite of all these setbacks, we are ready to open our 2025 season. We have been busy constructing set pieces, platforms, doors, windows, and even an "elevator." We have obtained new curtains (for our Steeltown "Black Box" productions), and even new body mics. Our sincere thanks to our sister theater companies, Clayton Theater Company, Ghostlight Theater Ensemble, and Onstage Repertory Theater, for their invaluable assistance and support and allowing us the opportunity to rebuild.

We are temporarily renting storage units for the set pieces, costumes, and props we do have. We will continue to rebuild our stock of those items as we need them. However, if you have any unusual or vintage items you would like to donate, please let us know. We may not be able to accept all items, but we are interested in those that are hard to get.

Our GREATEST NEED, however, is finding a new place (a warehouse) to store items and to build our sets in the future. If you know of any location (at least 2500 square feet) that might fill that need, please call us at 925-439-7529, or email ptc@ptcca.org.

Of course, we also need you. Please come and audition for a show, help us make and alter costumes or props, participate in set builds, work in the theatre as an usher, or take on one of the dozens of other tasks that go into producing our shows. You'll have a great time and you'll get to know some wonderful people.

We can't leave out this part... We still need your financial help. Please consider donating directly to us (perhaps on Giving Tuesday, December 2, 2024). Any amount is welcome and very much appreciated. Donate to Pittsburg Theatre Company directly via mail. Checks can be mailed to the address below or go online at www.ptcca.org (use the donation button). You can also Venmo us at: @PCT-California (verification number 7529).

Once again, thank you for your ongoing support. We will see you at the theatre!

Sincerely,
The PTC Board of Directors

HARVEY

Written by Mary Chase
February 28—March 9, 2025

Elwood P. Dowd insists on including his friend Harvey in all of his sister Veta's social gatherings. Trouble is, Harvey is an imaginary six-and-a-half-foot-tall rabbit. To avoid future embarrassment for her family—and especially for her daughter, Myrtle Mae—Veta decides to have Elwood committed to a sanitarium. At the sanitarium, a frantic Veta explains to the staff that her years of living with Elwood's hallucination have caused her to see Harvey also, and so the doctors mistakenly commit her instead of her mild-mannered brother. The truth comes out, however; Veta is freed, and the search is on for Elwood, who eventually arrives at the sanitarium of his own volition, looking for Harvey. But it seems that Elwood and his invisible companion have had a strange influence on more than one of the doctors. Only at the end does Veta realize that maybe Harvey isn't so bad after all.

Banished by the ferocious tiger, Shere Khan, a human boy named Mowgli and his panther friend, Bagheera, are on the run in the deepest parts of the jungle. On their journey, the two meet a sinister snake named Kaa, a herd of elephants, and a giant bear named Baloo, who teaches them the swingin' musical rhythms of the jungle. When Shere Khan returns, our heroes must rally their animal friends into battle and restore peace throughout the jungle.

Basketball team captain, Troy, discovers that the brainy Gabriella, a girl he met singing karaoke on his ski trip, has just enrolled at East High. They cause an upheaval when they decide to audition for the high school musical, led by Ms. Darbus. Although many students resent the threat posed to the "status quo," Troy and Gabriella's alliance might just open the door for others to shine as well.
