A NOTE FROM THE DIRECTOR

In an effort to provide a fun summer theater experience for both littles and teens, we decided to take on two shows at the same time - Jungle Book Kids and High School Musical. It was definitely a new experience to have rehearsal for two separate shows in the same day, every day, all day. Thankfully, we have two casts full of talented, silly, fun, sweet, hardworking young actors.

Jungle Book Kids takes us through the story of Mowgli, who grew up in the jungle, but is told upsetting news that it is not a safe home for a human. She meets new animals along the way and sees that there are many different types of friends who care for her. Mowgli learns that she will always belong and have jungle friends to look out for her, including a new human friend!

High School Musical is a classic story of boy-meets-girl, but they run in different cliques. Troy is a jock, Gabriella is new to East High and a brainiac. Both want to sing in the school musical, but neither friend group approves! Meanwhile, Sharpay and her twin brother Ryan dominate the theatre department and do not like newcomers! Will Troy and the jocks win the big game? Will Gabriella and the brainiacs win the science decathlon? Will Troy & Gabriella audition for the musical? Will Sharpay and Ryan sabotage everything? And why all the pink??

The past month has been a lot, but so much fun! It has been an honor to be with this wonderful cast and crew every day. I am so proud of everyone involved! Thank you to friends and PTC supporters who donated props and costume pieces. I'd also like to mention that our HSM interns, Ben, Lucy, Hannah and Collin, needed to be added to the HSM ensemble, which means they rehearsed and performed BOTH shows!

Lastly, a very special thank you to Josie Rapolas, Flo Buchanan, Amy Mark, Ava Duran, Julie Domingo, Angie Hart, Desiree Capote, Maria Coniglio, Anthony Elrod, Owen Loyd, and Dianna Schepers, for all of the time and effort they devoted to putting this show together! I love you all.

Thank you so much for coming to our show and I hope you love it as much as I do!

~Katie Rapolas, Director
